Maybe I'm a young boy knowing nothing
About what I should do
With the rest of my life as it stands
I can't help but dream about where I'll be going
Some place far away where my hopes can stay
And I can call it home, well I know

I know when my times get tough
I'll sing a sad song, never let my dreams lose touch
I'll know when disaster struck
Run through the fires never gonna give them up
People will talk but they can talk all they want
'Cuz it's about you and me together forever
And I hope you never leave

I know what I wanna do when I grow old
With all of you by my side I can't go wrong
Well tell me how this can be so wrong
When it's feelin' so right and I know
That life without you is not worth living

Well maybe you're all out there searching for something
Well you're on your way
Just keep your head high, you'll get there someday
Well wouldn't you say that we're all just livin' in a world that we don't understand
But yeah we're gonna make it through the day
Yeah we're gonna make it day in Day in, day out, I know

I know when my times get tough
I'll sing a sad song, never let my dreams lose touch
I'll know when disaster struck
Run through the fires never gonna give them up
People will talk but they can talk all they want
'Cuz it's about you and me together forever
And I hope you never leave

I know what I wanna do when I grow old
With all of you by my side I can't go wrong

Well tell me how this can be so wrong
When it's feelin' so right and I know
That life without you
That life without you

Maybe we could stay here
Oh so happy, just you and me

Well don't think I'm pretending
When I say this to you

I know what I wanna do when I grow old
With all of you by my side I can't go wrong
Well tell me how this can be so wrong
When it's feelin' so right and I know
That life without you
That life without you
That life without you is not worth living
