Those sparks can burn your hand
Loud speakers send the sound
Shoots you out just like a satellite
On and on and on and on
Tell me what is it
Charges them up
Far beyond the alcohol
You can come and burn the rug to cinders
On and on and on and on
Late December, sitting on this balcony
Watching the red sky flickering from afar
Earth has tilted, the whole sky shifted
On and on and on and on
My feet keep walking
Come back body
Come back memory
You know lately friends think I've turned crazy
On and on and on and on
Late December, sitting on this balcony
Watching the red sky flickering from afar
Earth has tilted, the whole sky shifted
On and on and on and on ....
And it feels like I'm flying
And it feels like I'm flying
Late December, sitting on this balcony
Watching the red sky flickering from afar
Earth has tilted, the whole sky shifted
On and on and on and on ....
