Hail to the Chimp ---

Take what you know and learn to fight.
Pack all your bags you leave tonight.
This injustice has done you no wrong I say, my friend.
Not enough to Pledge, Torn from what you know.

Bombs in the air, targets unknown do you care?
No need for your war destruction, deliberate, ignore

Again
We will not, vote for you!

I could bring you down, deep into the ground
The smile on your face won't let you see no more.
Perhaps you should lie, it's always worked before.

Again
We will not vote for you
My Friend
Too Many Lost Save the Few
