Jacky D ---

What's with these guys always stealing my lines?
And everything's coming down around me
I can't even go at night
Without someone starting a fight

And what goes down will come around
Cause everyone's screaming at me now
I can't even close my eyes
Hit the floor and lock the door.
And i wonder who am i to say
and i wonder who am i to complain
And what do you do?
You walk away
And do say?
Fuck you too!

I'd hoped by now you figured out how to solve your problems the right way
I can't even drink JD, what the fuck is wrong with me?

And i wonder who am i to say
and i wonder who am i to complain
And what do you do?
You walk away
And do say?
Fuck you too!
