Sorry I'm not here right now
Due to accidental spaceflight
cause' someone turned out the lights On my way to my room
so I ended up on the moon and I don't think I'll be coming home any time soon

Sitting in a crater hope to see you later cause I'm not available right now Armstrong foot prints lead me to the sunny side of the moon where I hope to find a rock to bring back to you

Sorry I'm not here right now
Due to accidental spaceflight
cause' someone turned out the lights
On my way to my room
and I don't think I'll be

I hope you see the moon dust angels I'm making because the lack of gravity makes them turn out perfectly The weightlessness has really been growing on me Because who wants to walk when they can be gliding

If I jump at just the right time I'll catch that asteroid from behind and ride it all the way to you 12 thousand miles an hour right through the atmosphere which thankfully is quite clear right near where I should appear if you signal me with your shining heart my dear

Here I come on my way back from my trip to space and I have a rock for you its a beautiful shade of blue just like your shiny eyes that give me butterflies when they reflect off the Beautiful moon light at night
