Maybe I'm lost
Maybe I'm not ready
Maybe I was not properly socialized

But when you drag me under
When you pull me over the line
That's when you really reach me

I know the night drives
I know the afterglow
I know I look quieter than I feel.

I wanna fight like lovers
Wanna pull you over the line
Dread sovereign!
(Where do the lonely hearts go)
Dread sovereign!
(Where do the lonely hearts go)

I know the white flag waving
When you are drowning under the lights
In the ebb of the black tide
(Where do the lonely hearts go)
Dread sovereign!
(Where do the lonely hearts go)
Dread sovereign!
(Where do the lonely hearts go)
