Every night I find myself thinking of you
I can't get you off my mind
I dream of fantasies
I wish they were real girl
Of you and me all the time
I believe that love still has much to offer
Given time I prove it's true, prove it's true
Nothing to lose but to gain when I left her
Because it's all about you
Just look back and see the best of you and me
Thought we had to the end
I can't believe it's gone
This love we both had once
Now we can't even be friends

Chorus:
My heart is screaming all night
Give me a second chance
Listen to my cries ( 4x )

I don't know what I have done to hurt you
But now I do feel the pain
Set back the time of us
I wish that I could do
To where we both had all to gain
Lose not the love that I have lost from your broken heart
Foolish, now alone I stand, alone I stand
Fearing the thought of you staying away so far
And me never given a chance
To prove my love that's strong
Knowing right from wrong
The challenge has now begun
To gain your heart's control
Succeeding as my goal
No less but more like love I've done

Chorus

Just look back and see the best of you and me
Thought we had to the end

I can't believe it's gone
This love we both had once
Now we can't even be friends

Chorus ( 2x )
