I don't want to cry anymore
Tired of feeling insecure
Every time I find my way
You begged me to stay
Never thought you'd be untrue
I spend too much heart on you
And to think I blew it away
On your word that you gave

But somewhere between my truth and your lies I realized
That not all things end happily ever after

But I'm gonna be okay
Yeah I'm gonna be okay
So I'm gonna be okay
It's the only way
That I'm gonna be okay
I tell myself I'm okay

Cause you came into my life
And you told me we were gonna be forever
But forever didn't, thought it did
You and me together is all I ever wanted forever
But baby forever didn't, thought it did

I'm so tired of your lies
Tired of playing this silly games
Letting my love go to waste
When I think about the times
You came up with all your lies
Just to keep me from running away
From your selfish luxury

But somewhere between my truth and your lies I
realized
That not all things end happily ever after

But I'm gonna be okay
Yeah I'm gonna be okay
Said I'm gonna be okay

It's the only way
That I'm gonna be okay
I tell myself I'm okay

Cause you came into my life
And you told me we were gonna be forever
But forever didn't, thought it did
You and me together is all I ever wanted forever
But baby forever didn't, thought it did

Just trying to breath
Takes some time to see
I need to be in a place
Where I can find myself again forever
A place where happily ever after could be

Cause you came into my life
And you told me we were gonna be forever
But forever didn't, thought it did
You came into my life
And you told me we were gonna be forever
But baby forever didn't, thought it did
You and me together we saw
I am the one and forever

But I'm gonna be okay (gonna be okay)
Yeah I'm gonna be okay (gonna be okay)
Said I'm gonna be okay (gonna be okay yeah)
And I'm gonna be okay
Said I'm gonna be okay
Yeah I'm gonna be, gonna be, gonna be okay
