when I said you should leave me alone oh my

(verse1)
know you got your man and I've got my girl
so won't you understand that this will never work now I realise
I see right through your game
'couse I got hypnotized by the fortune and the fame I'm a regular man who's trying to be real I hope you understand exactly how I feel
where's your husband hide (?) I know you tell me lies (?) this for all the girls who have their alabi

(course)

(stick)

but my love is real
be reeaal
and my heart is real
be reeaal
and my words are real
be reeaal
so why can't you be reeeaaal

(verse2)
you will never know just how much I care
you say you have two months but we know it means two years sometimes I wish that I was a little bit more like you just so I can do all the hurtfull things you do and just walk away without a care in the world this is sad to say but you were never my girl And though my heart is torn I'm escaping my pride Once my love was blind now I see devils in your eyes
