Well I just got home
Finally I'm alone
It's been a crazy day

All this non-stop rushin' around
And even in this little bitty town
Everybody's got somethin' to say

I throw my stuff on the floor
And lock all of the doors
Gonna find some peace inside

Isn't it good tonight?
Now I'm here everything's all right
Isn't it good tonight?
I don't have to leave till the mornin' light comes down

Now I'm lyin' here
Nothing to interfere
With this dream I have of you

It's you lyin' next to me
We fit so easily
There's nothing I can't say

And isn't it good tonight?
I'm in your arms and everything seems right
Isn't it good tonight?
I don't have to leave till the mornin' light comes down

Isn't it good tonight?
I don't wanna move until' the mornin' light baby
Isn't it good tonight?
I don't have to leave till the mornin' light comes down
Stay by my side
