Though I've lost, when I found my way
To your solid soul, I forgot your name
All I've found, was a crackle tam
And the... on him

Through the eyes, you might find
Underneath it all
Another life, that reside, like a Russian doll
Through the eyes, you might find
Underneath it all
Another life, that reside, like a Russian doll

Seeking life inside the word and skins
A fin fast settle keep the water in
They much hard to find it... it
It is to keep it from the truth within

Through the eyes, you might find
Underneath it all
Another life, that reside, like a Russian doll
Through the eyes, you might find
Underneath it all
Another life, that reside, like a Russian doll x 4
