I'm gonna tell you something you don't wanna hear

You never listen when I talk

Maybe you'll listen when I walk

So I made my mind up and made a sandwich

And I didn't shed a tear

I gave you one last minute of my time

In this mess I left behind

When you come home tonite

And turn on the light

Don't you be surprised to find

My Little Good-byes

Empty hangers by the closet door

Lipstick tube on the bathroom floor

Unpaid bills by the kitchen phone

I took the Beatles, left Billy Joel

My Little Good-byes

I'm sure you're sure I'll be back in just an hour or two

You'll tape a Hallmark to my door

They always said it better than you

And if ya wondering when you're gonna hear from me

Well take a real good look around boy

And it won't be hard to see
When you come home tonite
And turn on the light
Don't you be surprised to find
My Little Good-byes
Took your favorite Dodgers hat
Left the litter, but I took the cat
Loaded up the TV in the back of my car
Have fun watching the VCR
My Little Good-byes
So cry to your mama and your sympathetic friends
And tell em, tell them how the story ends
Took the hourglass left the sand
Now you got time on your hands
Took the statue from Japan
Funny little Buddah man
Change my voice on the machine
Or there'll be little goodbyes with every ring
Left the pictures and took the frames
I've got the umbrella, here comes the ra-in, yeah yeah yeah
Ra-in, yeah yeah yeah
He-ey, yeah yeah yeah
He-ey, yeah yeah yeah
Little Good-Byes
