Every kiss before this Was nothing but a waste of breath
And every I love you was just a woop-de-do Never knew what i missed before this du du du doooooo
And every love song before you came along Was always about someone else Oh and every star was just a wish too far Always the realist Yea before this
And the way things go you never no Yea the way things go you never no And everything we've ever dreamed lies before me and you people say (people say) its not every day that you find the perfect fit but when i fell for you i found the other shoe cupid was a myth before this and they way things go you never know yea the way things go you never know and everything thing we've ever dreamed lies before me and you

(music)

and the way things go you never know
yea the way things go you never know
and everything we've ever dreamed lies before me and yoo

and everything we've ever dreamed lies
before me and yoo
