I know I'm not myself
Perhaps I am not well
I think therefore I smell
I've cubed myself to hell

I'll meet you at the end
Nothing is always your very best friend
No-one to comprehend
The vortex is always your very best friend

I'm looking for a sign
Now time cannot divide
The patterns of my mind
Perhaps that is a lie?

I'll meet you at the end
Nothing is always your very best friend
No-one to comprehend
The vortex is always your very best friend

I wanted to unfold
But something took a hold
And pulled me through a hole
I had to go

Is anybody there?
The concept is the snare
Perhaps I've lost the road
The vortex took my coat

I'll meet you at the end
Nothing is always your very best friend
No-one to comprehend
The vortex is always your very best friend
