Have you ever felt that somehow you were not yourself
That your body was the same but everything around you wasn't right
And images so strange and foreign Flooded in like raging water
Have you ever been in love with someone you hardly knew Whereas every time you closed your eyes, you saw this person come alive
It kept you wide awake at night
You felt like you were burning up
Then you passed out in a dream

CHORUS

Just once or twice is good for your soul
Just once or twice is good for your soul
If you don't stop, you'll lose control
Just once or twice is good for your soul
Every lay there half asleep all hours of the night
With some nagging demon tugging at that tiny bell
Inside your mind

When suddenly that strange idea

Bursts into an inspiration

You grab for it and then

The whole thing slips right through your fingers

CHORUS

Just once or twice is good for your soul

Just once or twice is good for your soul

Just once or twice is good for your soul

Just once or twice is good for your soul

It's good for your soul

It's good for your soul

It's good for your soul

It's good for your soul
