Life's been so good to me
Has it been good to you
Has it been everything
That you expected it to be
Was it as good for you
As it was good for me
And was it everything
That it was all set up to be
(Now is that gratitude)
Now is that gratitude
Or is it really love
Some kind of reality
That fits just like a glove
Now is that gratitude
For everything I've done
Or is it something else
That's got me on the run
In the middle of a big tornado
On the tip of everyone's tongue
In the belly of a giant whale
All the girls just wanna have fun

In the look of a frightened neighbor

In a big warm bed at night

In a broken elevator

In the teeth of a dog that bites

In the middle of a revolution

In the look of a child's face

In the silence of the dinner table

In the stillness of disgrace

(I used to eat little girls I knew

for breakfast

I used to fly high up in the sky

I used to chew up rocks and spit out gravel

I had a heart as cold as ice)

But when I think of you

And what you've done to me

You took away my hope

You took away my fantasy

I once had lots of pride

The world was in my hands

I lived way at the top

Of castles made of sand

Ooh . . .

I dream of you sometimes

Ooh . . .

I dream of you sometimes

In the middle of a big tornado . . .

Life's been so good to me .
