I thought I heard somebody cry--

I though I heard somebody cry)

I went to see what I could find

Like flowers in the dead of night

Like shadows in the moonlight--

I though I heard somebody cry

A choir with a single voice--A picnic on a cliff

Antenna like an insect--To pick up all your thoughts

CHORUS

It isn't true

I am not the ghost

Without a soul . . . Come

Listen to my heart

You feel the beat . . . Stop

Listen to the sound

Of moving feet . . . Walk

Through the halls at night

When I'm asleep

I don't believe . . . I don't believe

The shoe is on the other foot--The glove is on the fist

The first is like a cannonball--But it feels like a kiss

I got a bed that's real soft--In a room that's always sad

I thought I heard a window sigh--

I though I heard somebody cry

A choir with a single voice--a picnic on a cliff

Antenna like an insect--To pick up all your thoughts

I sip the running water--Like rivers from your eyes

I thought I heard somebody cry--Somebody might be lost

I thought I heard somebody cry--Somebody might be

I thought I heard somebody cry--I thought I'd go and see

I thought I heard somebody cry--Somebody might be me
