"Help Me"

Visit "Help Me" on MotoLyrics.com

When you spend your whole life

Building stone castles

When the walls start to crumble

Exposed to the world

When the wind burns my face

And the smoke burns my eyes

I can't ever cry

I can't ever cry

CHORUS

You gotta help . . .

To make me somebody

You gotta help . . .

To open my eyes

The temperature's rising

How a cool drink would help

I've been thirsty for years

I've been thirsty for years

I'm hungry for something . . .

Just the touch of your flesh

To sooth and refresh . . .

To sooth and refresh.
