There's life underground)

I feel it all around / I feel it in my bones

My life is on the line / When I'm away from home

When I step out the door / The jungle is alive

I do not trust my ears / I don't believe my eyes

I will not fall in love / I cannot risk the bet

Cause hearts are fragile toys / so easy to forget

It's just another day / There's murder in the air

It drags me when I walk / I smell it everywhere

It's just another day / Where people cling to light

To drive away the fear / That comes with every night

CHORUS

It's just another It's just another day

It's just another It's just another day . . .

It's just another day--When people wake from dreams

With voices in their ears--That will not go away

I had a dream last night / The world was set on fire

And everywhere I ran / There wasn't any water

The temperature increased / The sky was crimson red

The clouds turned into smoke / And everyone was dead

(but) There's a smile on my face . . . For everyone

There's a golden coin . . . That reflects the sun

There's a lonely place . . . That's always cold

There's a place in the stars . . . For when you get old

There's razors in my bed / That come out late at night

They always disappear / Before the morning light

I'm dreaming again / Of life underground

It doesn't ever move / It doesn't make a sound

And just when I think--That things are in their place

The heavens are secure--The whole thing explodes in my face
