Reptiles and Samurais

Inhabit my head

Invading my dreams

Sleeping in my bed

They hear what I hear

Watching thru my eyes

They don't like what they see

Reptiles and Samurais

Are under my skin

They hide in my mind

They speak with my tongue

They run amuck in my terrain

They are not friends

But they are forces reluctantly

To share my brain

1ST BRIDGE

Reptiles have silly grins

Dark eyes--shiny teeth--some have fins

Samurais they smile never

Serious--pretty swords--very clever

CHORUS

Sometimes I watch you from this place way in the sky

Your faces young and shiny transform right before my eyes

To Samurais and lizards

reptiles and Samurais

Samurais and lizards

Reptiles and Samurais

Reptiles and Samurais

Inhabit my head

Invading my dreams

Sleeping in my bed

They battle but they never die

2ND BRIDGE

Reptiles have pretty scales

They run real fast--they like to bite--some have tails

Samurais like their water hot--very brave

They eat raw fish--they fight alot
