Spider crawling, on the wall

I see him and he, sees it all...

And he sees it all

I fell down in that lazy place, where the English language can't--penetrate and I

Saw your mouth moving--just forget it and lie here with me

Maybe we should just, climb in under the sheets

Where the words they don't get in the way

We were wondering, if you recall

Is this the end of it--end of everything

We were wondering, wonder

Spider crawling--in my left ear

Has a message I--want you to hear

Hope you're happy--found what you're looking for

Do you miss me, miss me at all?

Spider crawling, I crawl with him--

We go everywhere, we see everything

We are falling, we are falling, falling to nowhere

Hope you're happy--found what you're looking for

Do you miss me, miss me at all?

Spider crawling, spider crawling, spider crawling
