Don't you know we got smart bombs

It's a good thing that our bombs are clever

Don't ya know that the smart bombs are so clever

They only kill bad people

Don't you know though our kids are dumb,

We got smart bombs, what a joyous thing

Here we go so let's drink a toast

To those clever bombs, and the men who built them

Chorus:

There they go now, there go all my friends

There they go now, marching off to war again

With their bright flags waving in the wind

There they go now, marching off to war again

Smiling proudly, with their heads in the clouds

Don't you know this is better than any video friend

It's an action movie

Here we go watch the bad guys get their butts kicked

Really makes me feel good

Here we go watching CNN, the adrenaline rushes through my veins

Don't you know it's a feel good show, electronic bliss

It's a video, a video...

[Chorus]

Aren't you glad we got smart bombs

It's a damn good thing our bombs are clever

It's a shame that our kids are dumb,

But our bombs are smart, what a lucky thing now

Don't ya know it's a feel good show and it's suitable

For the whole darn family

Come on out everybody shout give a big salute to our ingenuity

Don't you know this is better than, any video friend

It's an action movie

Here we go watch the bad guys get their butts kicked

Really makes me feel good

Don't you know it's Nintendo

Really gets the blood running through my veins now

Don't you know it's a feel good show, electronic bliss

It's a video, a video

There they go now, there go all my friends

There they go now, marching off to war again

With their bright flags waving in the wind

There they go now, marching off to war again

Smiling proudly

There they go now, there go all my friends

There they go now, marching off to war again

With their bright flags waving in the wind

There they go now, marching off to war again

Smiling proudly, with their heads in the clouds

See them smile now, marching off in lines

There they go now, there go all my friends

There they go now, marching off to war again
