The first time I died
Was in the arms of good friends of mine
They kiss me with tears
They hadn't been near me for years
Say why do it now
When I won't be around, I'm going out?

"We needed you to love us too, we wait for your move"

Only tragedy allows the release
Of love and grief never normally seen
I didn't want to let them see me weep
I didn't want to let them see me week
But I know I have shown
That I stand at the gates alone

"I needed you to love me too, I wait for your move"

CHORUS:

All the love, all the love, all the love we could have given
All the love, all the love, all the love you should have given
All the love, all the love, all the love

The next time I dedicate my life's work
To the friends I make
I give them what they want to hear
They think I'm up to something weird
And up rears the head of fear in me
So now when they ring, I get my machine to let them in

"I needed you to love me too, I wait for your move"

CHORUS

"We needed you to love us too, we wait for your move"
