When I was a little bit younger
The strain I was under could make me cry
Now I'm a little bit older,
A little bit bolder
Never so shy

Sweet darlin', come hold me,
Just a little bit longer now
Sweet darlin', come hold me,
Just a little bit longer now

When things were a little bit clearer
When you got nearer
I shied from your touch
Now that I know what I want, see,
I think that it haunts me,
I want you too much

Sweet darlin', come hold me,
Just a little bit longer now
Sweet darlin', come hold me,
Just a little bit longer now

Sweet darlin', come hold me,
Just a little bit longer now
Sweet darlin', come hold me,
Just a little bit longer now

Sweet darlin', come hold me,
Just a little bit longer now
Sweet darlin', come hold me,
Just a little bit longer now

Sweet darlin', come hold me,
Just a little bit longer now
Sweet darlin', come hold me,
Just a little bit longer now

Sweet darlin'!
