Oh it seems like I am gone because your feeling down and out Can't seem to put a finger on the source of all your doubt I've watched you through these years, helped you up each time you fell
Will you show me that I'm still alive and well

Remember me when you lose your inspiration Remember me when you're scared to look around Remember me when you need to find a reason Remember me and please don't let me down

Oh I am that burst anger that you couldn't bottle up When the cops came by in numbers and they took you off in cuffs
When you wouldn't let them take your rights they took you to a cell
Will you show me that I'm still alive and well

I'm that feeling in heart you used to get in school
The one that helped you learn that you don't have to follow rules
They tried to break your spirit but they only touched your shell
Will you show me that I'm still alive and well

I strengthened you to stand strong when it came time to rise
I taught you how to speak when it came time to organize
I strengthened you for battle when it came time to rebel
Will you show me that I'm still alive and well

When everyone's together I'm still lingering inside Waiting to break free and take your body for a ride I'm a power, hope and knowledge, that no one can buy or sell
Will you show me that I'm still alive and well

Oh yes I live inside your memory, and in your heart and mind

I'm the confidence and love of self that only you can find In the veins of active people, I'm the difference you can tell
Will you show me that I'm still alive and well
