Soldier's got the watches
Farmer's got the time
Soldier's got the capital
Farmer's got the countryside

What you got?
You're pretty far from home here

What you got?
You're all alone here

Soldier's got the helicopter
Farmer's got the RPG
Soldier's got the propaganda
Farmer's got the popularity

And the ghosts of Brits, and the ghosts of Russians
They haunt your dreams don't they?
Cuz the ghosts of Afghan martyrs
Are alive in the mountains every day
