Sometimes I feel my heart so lonely but that's ok
No matter how my girl just left me, I just don't care Whenever the rain comes down and it's seems there's no one to hold me
She's there for me, she's my mom

Just for my mom, I write this song
Just for my mom, I sing this song
Coz just my mom, can wipe my tears
Coz just my mom, can only here

Trap in a subway, can't remember the day but I feel ok Damped in damn situation, in every condition with no conclusion
Whenever the rain comes down and it's seems there's none to hold me
She's there for me, she's my mom

Just for my mom, I write this song
Just for my mom, I sing this song
Coz just my mom, can wipe my tears
Coz just my mom, can only here

Just for my mom, I write this song
Just for my mom, I sing this song
Coz just my mom, can wipe my tears
Coz just my mom, can only here

You may say I have noone, to cover me under the sun
You only get it from your mom, Mom!
