Friends for a long time, but I think we should have fucked.
Friends for a long time; maybe you don't want to see the rest of me.
Friends hold a safety, keep a line and never cross that.
Lovers take it further and I don't want to see our trust ever lost.
Some would say this could be a great foundation for
something more.
Some would say I'm just afraid to look beyond this
door.
But if we stop right now we could go back to what we
were before.
I just don't know. I'm just not that sure.
What it all comes down to of course is the question of trust.
But are you really capable of being there when I really must?
What about those days when I just fall apart?
I'm relying on bravado. You know I made it and often.
Some would say this could be a great foundation for
something more.
Some would say I'm just afraid to look beyond this
door.
But if we stop right now we could go back to what we
were before.
I just don't know. I'm just not that sure.
So let me explain. Your childhood seems relatively sane.
It seems to me you got it all from your family.
Do you want to know my history?
Do you want to know my history?
Do you really want to know my history?
I would say this could be a great foundation for
something more.
I would say I'm just afraid to look beyond this door.
But if we stop right now we could go back to what we
were before.
I just don't know. I'm just not that sure.
