Christobel

When the moment arrives
You know I will be waiting
Kicking into survival
The seas of life divide
It might seem to appear
That I am dead already
I left it all on the ground
At your feet
Yes
Christobel (gone away)
Christobel (gone away)
Why won't you just fall in love
With me?
Christobel (gone away)

Let the temperature rise
The birds of prey are mating
And with you by my side
The instinct is alive
It might seem to appear
That I am dead already
I left all at your feet
On the ground
Before I died
Yes
Christobel (gone away)
Christobel (gone away)
Why won't you just fall in love
With me?
Christobel (gone away)

Yes
Christobel (gone away)
Christobel (gone away)
Why won't you just fall in love
With me
Christobel (gone away)
