Eternal flame

Yes

I wanna have it

Yes yes

I wanna have you now

But I can't be the lighter

I can't be the lighter

I wanna go there

Yes yes

I wanna show you how

But I can't be the lighter

I can't be the lighter

Just in case you never knew

I can't be the lighter

Of your eternal flame

Oh! Oceans, rivers, lakes

That we could swim as two

But I already own my Own body of water

You'll follow me and

Yes, yes

I'll follow you,

It's true

But I'm already certain

I've got good directions

Just in case you never knew

I won't be becoming

I am the beginning

And I'm already

Done

These yes days

They've come and gone

Not always going to make

The same mistakes

It's too simple, I saw the truth
And truth is the terror of the one
Who feels their lace can be stained
But I cannot stain your white lace, baby
Even you cannot stain your white lace baby

No
I'll never go there
No no
I'll never take that route
'Cause I won't be the fighter
I won't be the fighter

Don't ever push me
No, no, don't ever make me shoot
'Cause I won't be the fighter

Just in case you never knew
For your eternal flame

Just in case you never knew
I won't be becoming
I am the beginning
And I'm already

Just in case you never knew
