Fall asleep in someone else's eyes
A crash course on chasing alibis
I feel so strong, but you still make me wonder
Why fate wants me in her crossfire

Fever's got my head
I don't want to go, I don't want to stay now
If prudence wants to play, take me to her playground

I'm walking from this Providence
While jumping out of my own skin again
You tell me there's a race, but where are the runners
Life is too short for misconnections

Where do we go from here?
