English translation

If I give up it's over
Reset the feelings in the place to return to

One more play
When I just closed my eyes for a bit
Will I at least be able to hide my gloom?
I'm sorry, even though you supported me so much
I tripped. I can't be forgiven
Every time I climb the stairs
Even if someone deserts me
I will accept the sadness
"I can't quit here," I stand up
I only hold a single wish
That I don't lose when wagering everyone's fate
While I tremble
But if I give up it's over
Reset the feelings. The chance meeting
Is too cruel, I am scared
Let's try aiming higher, even if it's a show of courage
Some day I feel I'll be able to smile naturally Alright, this time I won't waste my reflection
I'll easily jump over the pitfalls
The heart steeped in the feelings of chagrin
If I use all of it, it will change into a chance
I will think one more time
It's not like me to be crushed here
At the edge of the advancing time
I will meet with you again. Because I want to win next time
Even if I get hurt
I don't know when it will begin
Rather than advanced tricks, I made it empty
My consciousness will move at last
If I give up it's over
With this cruel rule, the desire coming true
(if I get up)
I only hold a single wish
That I don't lose when wagering everyone's fate
While I tremble
But if I give up it's over
Reset the feelings. The chance meeting
Is too cruel, I am scared
