"Give back"

Everywhere I go I see corruption. Everywhere I go I see deceit.

The only thing that keeps my feet on the ground is the pounding in my eardrums from the beat.

This is my heart. This is my life. This is what I do, it's what I love.

This is my heart. This is my life and I'll be doing this until I die.

So much drama. So much shit. It doesn't matter what I do or say.

So many problems, so many tears, they just never ever go away.

But I can turn to you 'cause you'll always be there.

I've been using you my whole life.

Well now it's time to give back and I'm trying all I can.

So this is how I chose to live my life.

I'll be with you 'till I die.
