I called for you, you answered me
I needed you, you wanted me
I searched for you, you found me
I walked to you, you ran to me

Ohhh... you're my beloved, my precious beloved
I am yours and you are mine
My beloved, my precious beloved

You've romanced me with your touch
And I've felt your love
You've showed me your mercy
And flooded me with grace

Ohhh... you're my beloved, my precious beloved
I am yours and you are mine
My beloved, my precious beloved

You've showed me the light in the dark of night
And given me your hand when I was sinking in the sand
And said you'll never let me go

Ohhh... you're my beloved, my precious beloved
I am yours and you are mine
My beloved, my precious beloved
