Go

I don't wanna see your face no more
You fooled my heart and you stole my soul
Oh you stole my soul

You promised me the sun, you promised me the moon
You said me lies with the silver spoon
Uhh silver spoon

I don't need you anymore
Life is how it was before
Take you things from my dresser drawer
'Cause I don't need you anymore

Now, I'm tryin to figure out how
You made it beyond of my doubt oh
Through all my doubt

You promised em the stars, you promised em the sea
But you let me feelin so empty ohh
I feel so empty
I don't need you anymore
Life is how it was before
Take you things from my dresser drawer
'Cause I don't need you anymore
'Cause I don't need you anymor
