Well, it's not fair that I can't take a swing at the world
So I think I will
And it's not fair you can't take a swing at the world
So I think you will
So lets all just take a sawing at the world
Because of what it did to us...

Life is so not fair
But the world keeps twirling round
Life and death and Love
But I don't see a ponit
If I can't walk I'll take a pair of fake legs and run!

Well, I met a girl who was angrey
And she doing some pretty bad things
And I told her to take a swing at the world then said

Life is so not fair
But the worls keeps twirling round
Life and death and love
But I don't see a ponit
If I can't walk I'll take a pair of fake legs and run!

So noow that girl is moving on in the world
And I'm tryin' to tell
Everyone who will listen...

Life is so not fair
But the world keeps twirling round
Life and Death and Love
But I don't see a ponit
If I can't walk I'll take a pair of fake legs and run

So I'm telling you now...
So I'm telling you now...
So I'm telling you now...

Life and death and Love
But I don't see a ponit
