Verse 1

In a world based on living by the eye
The favoured path appearing first, a universal lie
The trouble is these people find they're always running off They've chased these twisted trails, soon to see that they are lost
They learn that everywhere they go is simply going nowhere
It's all a piece of fiction and the fix cannot be seen there
We've found no other hope outside of our perception It's safe to say that this has steered our misdirection

Chorus

Although the narrow path appeared open to doubt
The faith we've kept has shown us what this walk is about
When we walk by sight, life's an unknown fate
But when we walk by faith, He keeps our pathways leading straight

Verse 2

We need to learn to follow or we'll never settle down
We need to learn to just surrender, listen to the Crown
The judgment of our eyes cannot determine if we're wise Human beings so error-prone will face no more than highs
The only way to really live is first to change our hearts Honouring the Maker is where satisfaction starts Living with devotion, it's one way or the other
We need to give up all our ways so we can live another

Chorus

Although the narrow path appeared open to doubt
The faith we've kept has shown us what this walk is
about
When we walk by sight, life's an unknown fate
But when we walk by faith, He keeps our pathways

leading straight
