Verse 1

Some see You as false hope
Fake safety helping us to cope
But they've not nearly reached the core
You're so much more, You're so much more

Chorus

You're the Healer for the hurt
The Refuge for the weak
Father to the abandoned
Protector from all trouble
Hope for the discouraged
Forgiver of the guilty
Savior for the trapped
Purpose for our living

Verse 2

In You, no one is lost
As, on the cross, You paid the cost
We can't earn You, but You deliver
Relentless giver, unreserved forgiver

Chorus

The Refuge for the weak
Father to the abandoned
Protector from all trouble
Hope for the discouraged
Forgiver of the guilty
Savior for the trapped
Purpose for our living
