I can't expect you to see me when i'm not around and my voice is destroyed by confinement of sound i'm a human machine laced with hidden disease if the future looks bleak then you're connected to me

flesh into gear
myself appears dissected and pretentious a simple sound a heavy sigh you'll win the whole world over you'll live in fear of being someone that you didn't want to
i realize your insecurities will get the best of you a traitor's embrace how foolish how wrong contained in one place anxiety spawns

unopened reowned
what's needed upscaled digested inhaled
unwilling unwound
