You never close your eyes when you're touching me
Don't think the darkness hides your shame
But when I touch the naked flame
I feel the beat, feel the pain
I've got the taste of you
Living in my veins

I keep seeing that ghostrain coming for my heart
I keep hearing that wicked sound calling out for me
Can I get lucky one more time
Can't you show me what's on your mind
If you had one prayer to pray....would you say
Getaway....ghostrain

You never say the words that came so easily
The silence keeps on haunting me
So if I try for tenderness
Would I be touching bitterness
Could I find the taste of love in your veins...

I keep seeing that ghostrain coming for my heart
I keep hearing that wicked sound calling out for me
Can I get lucky one more time
Can't you show me what's on your mind
If you had one prayer to pray....would you say
Getaway....ghostrain

'Cos all these nights keep driving me insane...
I keep seeing that ghostrain
