

Sherman Allan

"Heart On Ice"

Visit "Heart On Ice" on MotoLyrics.com

Going 90 miles an hour down a dusty road
Pushing this thing just to see how fast it'll go
The engine's hot enough to burn up the fuzzy dice
Better put my heart on ice

There's a single drop of sweat running down my neck
A little voice telling me to do something I might regret
Pedal to the medal right past the Church of Christ
Better put my heart on ice

Neon flashing M-O-T-E-L
Ain't no vacancy
It's just as well
Just one kiss and I could soon forget
That there ain't no ring on my finger yet
Oh No... Baby

Neon flashing M-O-T-E-L
Ain't no vacancy
It's just as well
Just one kiss and I could soon forget
That there ain't no ring on my finger yet

Well if he asked me now I swear I might say yes
Straight to the alter no cake, no wedding dress
My mama always dreamed I'd be wearing white
Better put my heart on ice

My mama always dreamed I'd be wearing white
Better put my heart on ice

Visit Sherman Allan page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.