Wake up, wake up where, where am I,
Slowly slowly open in my eyes
Blinded blinded by the sky light light light yeah
Where am, where am I coming from
What is taking me so alone
Feels like I've been stuck in another time time time

When the lights falls on your face
I see everything has changed

Chorus:

And there's no way back now, there's only you
You make someone I never knew
And there's no, no, no way back from loving you
No looking over I'm slaughter then I
'Cause I found forever in your eyes
And there's no, no, no way back from loving you
Baby

Ohhh

Empty pages slink in front of us
I was daising years to hear of us
You make me forget who I was before baby
Was it weaker light you and I
Did you find me in another life
I can't ignored what's in front of me

When the lights falls on your face
I see everything has changed

Chorus:

And there's no way back now, there's only you
You make someone I never knew
And there's no, no, no way back from loving you
No looking over I'm slaughter then I
'Cause I found forever in your eyes
And there's no, no, no way back from loving you
Baby

No way back, no there's no way back

And I won't listen
To the noise inside my head
No way back, no there's no way back
And I won't hear the voice of here
I make my choice and there's no way back from here

[Chorus:]
