And there's a feeling in the morning that i can get my stomach screams a warning as my first thoughts are forming in my head and i can lay between the covers remember how i loved another and postpone my slow recovery but i can fall asleep tonight if i can make it home by the daylight when i recall the times that i was left alone

'cause in the glimmer of your eye i begin to see myself in a different light

and they say, "whoa, baby, i gotta go... and i hate to let you know that this way."
but i can fall asleep tonight

whoa, oh oh oh...
