We've got nothing more from selling our clothes to the corner store

And our bags are locked so we can leave tonight for
the war

Oh, I've got a nervous tick

And seeing them go got me feeling sick

Well it's do or die, no taking sides anymore

And we're not the least afraid of the coming storm

Cause we've got the sound and sunshine to keep us warm

So give up, give up, give up what you're after

The day is gone and you've wasted all your time

(Give up, give up, give up)

But we've got to keep moving farther down the road
that you left behind

(Oh and I'm so far behind)

We've got nothing more from selling our clothes to the
corner store

the war

We're not the least afraid of the coming storm

Cause we've got the sound and sunshine to keep us
warm

So give up, give up, give up what you're after

The day is gone and you've wasted all your time

(Give up, give up, give up)

But we've got to keep moving farther down the road
that you left behind

Give up, give up, give up what you're after

The day is gone and you've wasted all your time

(Give up, give up, give up)

But we've got to keep moving and I'll be proud to call you a friend of mine

All this time I've been trying to find a way

To close this chapter but nothing ever stays away

It all keeps building, the things that I would say to you

So give up, give up, give up what you're after
The day is gone and you've wasted all your time
(Give up, give up, give up)
But we've got to keep moving farther down the road
that you left behind
Give up, give up, give up what you're after
The day is gone and you've wasted all your time
(Give up, give up, give up)
But we've got to keep moving and I'll be proud to call
you a friend of mine

Give up, give up, give up
And I'll be proud to call you a friend of mine
Give up, give up, give up
And I'll be proud to call you a friend of mine
