Hard times, I know you've seen better days
I know that you've never ever felt more alone
But, baby, I'm here and I'll have you now
That just when it feels like you've nowhere else to go

[CHORUS]

Now, now more than ever you will see
Baby, how much you mean to me
I'll show you love and you'll know

That now, now more than ever you will find
You've got my heart, my soul, my life
I am yours now more than ever, now and forevermore

Darlin', there's no need to be afraid
In me, you've got someone who'll never leave your side
I'll hold you and you'll see that it's not for show
You know that it's true love in the worst of times

[CHORUS]

And now, now more than ever you will see
Baby, how much you mean to me
I'll show you love and you'll know

That now, now more than ever you will find
You've got my heart, my soul, my life
I am yours now more than ever, now and forevermore

Baby, now, now more than ever you will see
Baby, how much you mean to me
I'll show you love and you'll know

That now, now more than ever you will find
You've got my heart, my soul, my life
I am yours now more than ever, now and forevermore

(Now, now more than ever) You will see
Baby, how much you mean to me
I'll show you love and you'll know

That now, now more than ever you will find
You've got my heart, my soul, my life

I am yours now more than ever, now and forevermore
