Stop, I swear we've been here before
And this is just another battle in a war
Where every other line, it ends in hate
And this time I mean it when I say

I'm not coming home to this place
Where I am nothing more than your mistake
And I refuse to stand in line
I won't be your vice

And we've done this before
Under wraps again, nothing but blood red hands
And how can I deny, when you're always right?

I'm not coming home to this place
Where I am nothing more than your mistake
And I refuse to stand in line
I won't be your vice

Give it up, give it up. You cannot get back
What you felt so strong, and this is a fact
Cannot say I'm wrong, because I know that Love is so much more than lying on your back
Give it up, give it up. You cannot say that,
That it's all my fault. I'm so much more than that

These heart palpitations, they're merely science
When a heart breaks, it breaks in silence
These synapses hold more than what we created
And love is only what we make it
These heart palpitations, they're merely science
When a heart breaks, it breaks in silence
These synapses hold more than what we created
And love is only what we make it
