Like frozen dolls contained,
She stole all their tongues
And left a tasteless stain on the breath of their lungs
Encased and on display
[They] Spoke as if they were God

We won't navigate this maze
Look back, the roads we made were grey
Look inward for error, and outward thereafter
It's for the best

Refused by knocks and tests,
Pandora's box left me the key
She brought reason to my eyes
To find the time to rest,
Where many men received defeat
Stranded by their own devices

The bane of the mariner
The tooth of the sea
It's all just the same element in the end (Am I foe or friend?)
Through water your livelihood, and ice words your defeat

We won't navigate this maze
Look back, the roads we made were grey
Look inward for error, and outward thereafter
It's for the best

Refused by knocks and tests,
Pandora's box left me the key
She brought reason to my eyes
To find the time to rest,
Where many men received defeat
Stranded by their own devices
Now on your back, this cold will make your grave

And fore the box had closed
She brought reason to my eyes
And said she stole their words
Because they failed their own, they failed their own advice

Take back what we have found in this world
What's left is all that we have deserved
And all we have is this punishment (For all of our)
For all our sin

Refused by knocks and tests
Pandora's box left me the key
She brought reason to my eyes
She brought reason (x3)
To my eyes
