"Bound To Be Good"

Tell me how you feel
Are you proud of what you've done?
Who's that staring back at me?
Do you like what you've become?

I don't know you anymore
You left off where I began
Can you hear me at all?
You're out of bounds again

Every change is bound to be good
We all know there's only one direction now
And you know I'd help you if I could
Every change is bound to be good

I can see it in your eyes
You've lost the reason to your rhyme
And all you do is hide
Time is never on our side

Every change is bound to be good...

I keep calling your name
Is there anybody home?
There's no one else to blame
And you know you're not alone

Every change is bound to be good...
