I'm a fallen angel with a loaded gun
A crusader from vengeance town
I'm a king a son of a king
A flame a son of a flame
My only wish my one desire
Is to see my name in fire
I'd blow my head for the sake of a wish
I'd laugh and watch me fall to bits

You will remember my name I'm gonna start a fire
You will remember my face I'm gonna start a fire

Tomorrow will be yesterday
And you're the one who has to pay
You did some things you will regret
I will forgive but not forget

I'm gonna get you for that I'm gonna start a fire
You will remember my name I'm gonna start a fire

I'm gonna get you for that I'm gonna start a fire
You will remember my name I'm gonna start a fire

The taste of shame is bitter sour
Ain't gonna let you make a fool out of me no more
Ooh I really get my kicks
On route 666

You will remember my name I'm gonna start a fire
I'm gonna get you for this I'm gonna start a fire
You will remember my face I'm gonna start a fire
I'm gonna get you for this I'm gonna start a fire
