Do you know how it feels to be lonesome
Have you ever lost your smile along the way
Did you ever see some light in the distance
And suddenly it all gets dark again

I don't care if I feel or if I don't
I don't care if I feel or if I don't

Did you ever walk the night that never ends
Not knowing where to go or where you are
Did you ever drain the cup of loneliness
While demons courted angels with their charm

I don't care if I feel or if I don't
I don't care if I feel or if I don't

Why do I try, when I know the reason why
Now the ember chill inside me burning blue
Why do I try, when I know the reason why
Now the embers chill inside me burning blue

Did you ever try to call out for somebody
And all you got was echoes in return
Did you ever walk the streets of emptiness
Cold and bare and nowhere left to turn

Why do I try, when I know the reason why
Now the embers chill inside me burning blue
Why do I try, when I know the reason why
Now the embers chill inside me burning blue
